OCTOBER 2008

Burgon & Ball
SHEFFIELD ENGLAND

home allotment™
grow with style on your patio or terrace

Delicious home grown vegetables and herbs by your kitchen door – with no ugly plastic grow bags!

Now everyone can grow their own vegetables, salads and herbs – all you need is a patio or balcony and Burgon & Ball's new, award winning Home Allotment™ planters.

Hand woven willow panels, in either a natural or whitewashed finish, surround the durable planting bags to create stylish and highly practical raised beds.

The super strong planting bags, with reinforced webbing handles have drainage holes and the planters can be simply disassembled for storage over the winter.

The smart black Planting Bags, with discreet Burgon & Ball branding tag, have been designed to be attractive enough for use on their own and can be bought separately by those who want to grow in bulk.
