

Show-Off Storage

Colourful kitchen containers for those with a sweet tooth, this set of three Sweetie Love cake tins is £40, Ella Doran (020 7254 4744; www.elladoran.co.uk)

Why hide your storage solutions away? When they look this good you'll want them out on display

Perfect for keeping crafty accessories under control, this cheery Cath Kidston Gypsy Wagon sewing box costs £50, from John Lewis (0845 604 9049; www.johnlewis.com)

Brighten up your office or craft area with Pantone Colour tin boxes in a choice of ten sizzling shades, £11 each, The Holding Company (020 8445 2888; www.theholdingcompany.co.uk)

With a section for tools and a sliding compartment in the lid for sarnies, the Tool & Tuck Box does what it says on the tin; £19.95, Burgon & Ball (0114 233 8262; www.burgonandball.com)

Keep plasters, pills and other essentials organised in this bright medicine bag, £18.95, The Holding Company (020 8445 2888; www.theholdingcompany.co.uk)

Line up these Russian doll boxes when full, or fit inside each other when empty. Seven sizes in total, £3.25 to £4.75, Oliver Bonas (020 8974 0110; www.oliverbonas.com)

This Giant Sharpener desk tidy might not sharpen your pencils but is a great way to get organised. It's £15.50, from Whippet Grey (01494 433344; www.whippetgrey.co.uk)

